

Graduate Scholarship Employment Certification Form

Partnership between the University of the Incarnate Word and
The Alamo Community College District (ACCD)

The University of the Incarnate Word (UIW) in partnership with Alamo Community College District (ACCD) is offering a 15 percent scholarship to full-time ACCD faculty, administrators and staff enrolling in UIW's Ph.D. program to facilitate the professional development of ACCD personnel for the San Antonio community.

Restrictions

ACCD employees must be enrolled in UIW doctoral courses offered on UIW's main campus. The scholarship does not apply toward Online courses. This scholarship cannot be used in combination with any other UIW scholarship and/or grant. In order to qualify, the Scholarship Employment Certification Form (below) must be completed and submitted to the UIW Financial Aid Office before registration. You must reapply each semester.

Procedure:

1. Before you register, have the Scholarship Employment Certification Form signed by your Human Resource/Personnel manager or representative.
2. Have your UIW advisor sign a Registration Form for the courses in which you plan to enroll.
3. Present, in person, your Scholarship Employment Certification Form to the UIW Financial Aid Office BEFORE THE START OF EACH SEMESTER.
